

Contact:
Daniel Hughes
404-313-4462

dhughes@alliedglobalmarketing.com

LATEST VEHICLES TAKE OVER THE MUSIC CITY CENTER FOR THE NASHVILLE INTERNATIONAL AUTO SHOW OCTOBER 18 – 20
Test Drives, 2020 Models, Elegant Exotics and More Come to Nashville

NASHVILLE, TN – The 2020-Model Nashville International Auto Show is back in the Music City Center October 18-20 with hundreds of new vehicles, flashy exotics and the opportunity to get behind the wheel of over 20 state-of-the-art autos for a test drive. The auto show is the premier Music City event to discover the latest in automotive technology and features from the top manufacturers in the world. Whether you are researching a future purchase, trying to catch a glimpse of ultra-luxurious rides or simply spending a day with friends and family, the Nashville International Auto Show is a pressure-free environment for all to enjoy.

The annual event provides auto enthusiasts the chance to check out the newest and most advanced cars, trucks, SUVs, crossovers, alternative fuel and electric vehicles, and more, all in the heart of downtown Nashville. With over 30 brands represented, attendees can get up close and personal with their favorite vehicles from the most popular automakers on the road, including Ford, GMC, Toyota, Honda and dozens of others.

An exciting duo of test drive offerings will allow people to experience first-hand the latest in vehicle safety, efficiency, luxury and technology. Drive FCA! is bringing a slew of 2020 models from Chrysler, Jeep®, Dodge, Ram and Fiat, including the award-winning Chrysler Pacifica, the crowd-commanding Dodge Challenger, the versatile Jeep® Compass and the eye-catching Fiat 124 Spider. Then, showgoers can take the wheel in one of the amazing vehicles in the Chevrolet Test Drive. Chevy has a model for every kind of car buff, and people are invited to take a spin in the Blazer, Camaro, Equinox, Malibu, Silverado, Traverse or Trax.

Test drives are included with the price of admission. Vehicles are subject to change. Drivers must be at least 18 years or older, show a valid driver's license and pass a breathalyzer test. Passengers must be at least 8 years old.

The Exotic Gallery, which features the super-luxurious exotics, gives you a chance to see your dream cars from the most renowned European manufacturers. The duPont REGISTRY™ is also back, bringing a collection of high-end vehicles from brands such as Audi, Mercedes and more.

Returning for another year is the Kids Test Track sponsored by Citgo, where your family's little racers (ages 3-9) can take some of the latest electric-powered children's vehicles for a spin.

The Nashville International Auto Show will be open to the public Friday, October 18, through Sunday, October 20, 2019 at the Music City Center, located at 201 5th Avenue S. in Nashville. Show hours are Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission to the event is $10 for adults, and $5 for seniors (62 and over) and military with any DOD ID. Children 12 and under are admitted free with a paying adult. Advance sale discount E-tickets can be purchased online at www.autoshownashville.com.